Common Sense for Women.

Ladies should read the Latest and Most Successful Importation from France.

All Women should May possess Bright Eyes, Fair Hair, Strength and Good Health.

No says Dr. Lillard, the famous French practitioner, who has devoted his whole life to the study of women, and has won the highest distinction through his scientific and successful practice among the first ladies of France.

WOMAN'S DEFENSE.

Woman is a heroine, says the doctor, and her remarkable endurance and ability in withstanding the most trying ordeal of modern civilization, which is a slave to the National Modesty of her sex, which as often causes her to lose the greatest trials, and suffer in silence, rather than consult her family physician, leaving to expose herself to necessary questioning and possible examination.

A LIFE-TOO.

Incorporating this latest scientific practice, Dr. Lillard, has, by years of study and close application, evolved a truly new method of treatment for all ailments peculiar to women, which has not withstood the test of time, and has been adopted by all the best physicians and the most successful of Europe.

By his expert methods and special remedies, which are free of charge, and which are especially adapted to her case, thus avoiding all embarrassment or inconvenience, and as Dr. Lillard's remedies are put up in the form of small daily doses, they are easily carried and taken at any time or place, without attracting attention. This is a great advantage in treatment which is so important to a woman, and generally impossible with other remedies.

Liquid remedies always contain a large proportion of alcohol, which is very injurious to the system, and is also very costly.

What Drink Has Done For a Family in Delaware.

In a little town of Delaware a few weeks ago a woman met her husband face to face in a hotel bar room just as the bartender was handing him a glass of whiskey. Turning to the bartender and the long-haired man said:

"The man has not done a day's work this winter and I am worn out trying to support him and the rest of the family. I want to know if something cannot be done to keep him from destroying his own life and starving his family."

The woman was thin and pale. Her lips quivered as she spoke. Her frail body could hardly stand the strain of the unfamiliar environment. As she finished the little girl by her side burst into tears. The bartender took back the whiskey. The abused husband stood with bowed head. One by one the loungers left the room. Presently the bartender, gazing at the poor woman, solemnly vowed that the man should not drink at his bar again. It was a pathetic scene—it was the last resort of a desperate woman, and as she left the hotel with her husband and little girl there was a lesson too painful for any pen to picture.

Making a newspaper is a soft snap. You often hear people say that. It reminds us of the old adage which says: "Preaching a sermon is just as easy as falling off a log." One Saturday the parson took sick and the deacon was asked to preach on Sunday. Certainly he would with pleasure. When Sunday came he went into the pulpit and went through the opening exercises without a hitch. Then he opened his Bible and read as his text: "Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine vain things?" Then he looked over the audience and read his text again. Then he waited for divine affluence to give down but it didn't give down a cent and he couldn't think of a word to say. He took off his glasses and polished them vigorously with his handkerchief, but the spirit would not come. Then he read his text over once more and looking up said: "I'll be

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

What the Editors of the Country Are Saying About the Leading Topics of the Day

Bryan has run up against a snag in Connecticut by urging the nomination of Mayor Mulvihill, of Bridgeport, as the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Mulvihill is the stoker who was nominated and elected Mayor by the labor organizations of Bridgeport after having previously served the town acceptably as a member of the Council. Bryan is reported to have said, "If Mulvihill can sweep Bridgeport, why can he not sweep the State?" But the Democrats of Connecticut resent the suggestion as gratuitous interference in their party's affairs, and they propose to make their own selection of a candidate for the Governorship.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The man who votes the Democratic ticket is an enemy of his own self.

He deliberately does that which, if successful, would deprive himself and family of the actual necessities of life.—Birmingham (Ala.) Times.

The Davenport "Republican" says the Free-Traders "construct theories and try to back them up with figures, but 'usually fail.' Just so, only a few instead of usually. The only figures in the Free-Traders' lexicon are 000,000.—Marion (Iowa) Register.

Mr. Bryan still makes an occasional jab at "commercialism." Mr. Bryan doesn't seem to realize that it was largely for the purpose of getting a good article of commercialism that the people defeated him.—Kansas City Journal.

It has been a long time since the Democratic party had full control of national affairs, but it makes the cold chills run all over a person to think in the home market. That enables diversified industries such as our forefathers used to enjoy, and such as gave the United States its grand start before the war and the days of trusts.—Birmingham (N. Y.) Republican.

There are a good many Democrats in Congress who don't respond to the hypocritical party wall of "justice to Cuba." They declare that they are for the sugar men of the South before they are for the merchant Cuba.—Terre Haute (Ind.) Tribune.

Upon a single important issue of the time is the Democratic party in Congress united, except upon a resolution to fight any attempt to investigate the extent to which the anti-fraud laws of several of the Southern States violate the Constitution. Here is the real Bourbonian manifest and conscience. Let it be a question of doing some wrong to the negro and Democracy is harmonious, but let it be any other question and Democracy is divided.—San Francisco Call.

A contemporary observes that "the question, 'What is a Democrat?' is yet to be answered." Well, the answer is ready. It is a bald-headed New York politician of the name of Hill.—Kansas City Journal.

The Democrats have yet to decide which is the best evidence of a true Democrat, the length of the nose on the back or the name blown in the bottle.—Lawrence (Kan.) Journal.

Solistic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain-Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists.

For Constipation

Take Loperol or Laxative Syrup. It won't hurt you, but it will give you relief. Your druggist will refund the money if it does not.

Gets Life Sentence.

Chicago, May 19.—Gay Locke, aged eighteen, and Edward C. Bulley, twenty years of age, were today sentenced to penal servitude for life for the murder of Peter Ferdinand.

"You ought to be hanged—yon deserve it; but 'being minors' protects you," said Judge Britton in pronouncing sentence.

Bulley ran away from his home in New York, with the idea of seeing some of the wild life he had read about in dime novels. Locke's home was in Rowletts, a village in Hart county, Ky., where his father keeps a general merchandise store. The murder was committed while the boys were attempting to rob Fafinski's grocery.

Hetty Green Given a Permit to go Armed.

New York, May 19.—Hetty Green, the noted woman of finance, has been granted a permit to carry a revolver by the police department of this city. Mrs. Green applied for the permit about a week ago to Capt. Stephen O'Brien, of the Leonard-street station

Do not wait. Do not be deceived by apparent and leading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing it within reach of everybody. A treatment more effective than others costing $26 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. and it was on his recommendation that the permit was given.

Capt. O'Brien's report on the application says Mrs. Green declared she was in the habit of carrying large sums of money, stocks, and jewelry.

She also said it was her intention to secure patent permit in all the larger cities in which she does business.

Follow the Heart of Bruce.

Romantic history tells us of Robert Bruce, the Norman knight and Scottish king, who won fame for himself and glory for his race upon the bloody field of Bannockburn.

In the sunset of his life, weighted with years and weakened with wars, he recalled the vow of his youth—to be buried in holy ground at Jerusalem.

Calling about him a few of his most faithful knights and retainers, he set forth on that last pilgrimage. But weakened by age, the old king died upon the journey. His last command to the living was that his heart be buried by the sepulcher at Jerusalem. His companions opened the dead king's breast, took therefrom his heart, and placing in its golden casket set on toward Jerusalem to bury it in holy ground.

On the sands of the desert that little band of the faithful was overtaken by a vast horde of Saracens. As death stared them in the face, and while the heathen flaunted his banner in the face of the Christian, those few of the faithful gathered for the last charge. As they rallied their broken ranks about the tattered standard of the dead king, the oldest knight among them raised the golden casket high above his head and flung it far out in the midst of the enemy, and shouted: "Sons of Scotland, follow the heart of Bruce!" And thus the killed chivalry of Scotland followed the heart of Bruce to the death.

In this hour let those turn back who will. Faithful unto death, we will gather up in our arms the sacred principles of our party, and with unswerving banner waving above our heads, we take our stand in the pass behind which lie unguaranteed interests and industries of this Republic! (Prolonged applause on the floor of the House and in the galleries.)

CASTORIA.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

MOST LADIES NEED A TONIC EVERY SPRING.

MRS. BARBARA McDONALD

President of the St. Louis Blue Ribbon Club, writes the following letter concerning Peruna from 287 Dayton street, St. Louis, Mo.:

"It is with feelings of gratitude for benefits derived from the use of Peruna that I desire to proclaim to human-kind my experience, hoping that it will benefit some unfortunate sufferer like myself."

"Suffering for years with what appeared to be an incurable malady, and after a great expense incurred consulting physicians without any benefit, I was recommended to try Peruna. As a last expedient I purchased a bottle, and before one-half of the contents were used I felt the beneficial results. I am continuing to use same, and might say I am entirely well. My disease seemed to be of the stomach, and the nauseating sensation, and the heavy, languid, tired-out feelings with which I suffered, especially after eating, have entirely left me, and my digestive organs are in splendid condition, all of which I owe to the use of Peruna."

MRS. BARBARA McDONALD.

Miss Julia V. Teller, of 218 Prairie street, Milwaukee, Wis., is President of the German Young Woman's Union. Her opinion of Peruna is given in the following words:

"Our German Young Woman's Union has nothing but praise for Peruna. Three of our members have been most wonderfully helped. One of them had the lassitude incident to spring weather is especially trying to women. All this class of ailments are fitly described by the term 'pelvic catarrh.'"

Any woman wishing to be placed on the list of Dr. Hartman's patients for free home treatment and advice should immediately send name and symptoms, duration of disease and treatment already tried. Directions for the first month's treatment will be promptly mailed free of charge. No free medicine will be supplied by the doctor, but all necessary directions will be furnished.

Read what the above ladies have to say of Peruna as a cure for these cases.

Miss Jerusha Matthews, of Newburg, Ind., and Mrs. Ludlow Flake, of St. Charles, Ky., are visiting their brother, Mr. Heber Matthews, here this week.

We represent Edward Rose & Co., Merchant Tailors. Their workmanship is superior to all others. 20 per cent. off on suits, 10 per cent. on pants until June 1st.

Mr. Cleve Her who has just engaged in the grocery business here is the youngest business man in town, but he knows what the people want in regard both to quality and bargain and is prepared to please his customers in each.

The dilapidated condition of the college grounds here is an eyesore to visitors to the college. There can be no excuse for such neglect and we hope to see the matter given immediate attention by those in authority.

Until June 1st, we will give 20 per cent. off on tailor-made suits and 10 per cent. off on tailor-made pants.

CARSON & CO.

Esq. P. H. Alford, of near Horse Branch, who has been sick for several months with a complication of diseases, is still very sick, and it is feared by his friends that the end is near. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davidson, of this place, are at his bedside.

Mr. T. Wade Stratton, left Wednesday evening for Menden, La., where he goes to take charge of the business department in the Home Institute and Central Louisiana Business College at that place. Wade is a hustling young man, and the best wishes of his many friends here go with him.

Children's Day was appropriately held at Oak Grove Methodist church, near Narrows, last Sunday. The exercises consisted of some excellent vocal music, speeches &c., by the children and others. A large audience was present and a dinner was spread on the ground that would certainly have pleased the most extreme epicure. The day was profitably spent and will be long remembered by those who were present.

The marriage of W. W. Hirsch, of Dundee, to Miss Lucy Maples, of the Victory neighborhood took place yesterday evening at the residence of Wm. Brown near Hartford, Rev. G. J. Bean performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. The Republican wishes the bride and groom a long and happy life as they travel along life's rugged stretch.

The Ohio County Fair Company is preparing to have this year the best Fair ever held in Ohio county. It is encouraged by the liberal patronage given the Fair last season, the Fair Company will spend a considerable amount of money this summer in repairing the buildings and grounds, and in securing attractions and comforts for the visitors. The Fair will begin October 1st, and continue four days.

A farmer living eight miles out in the country came to town Wednesday and got too drunk to go home. Yesterday morning his faithful and devoted wife, who had spent an anxious, sleepless night because of the prolonged absence of a profligate husband, walked all the way to town to see what had become of him. He said to the husband's credit, that he had heart enough to greet his weeping wife pleasantly, and shame enough to want to leave town at once, but the faithless woman, whose brain was not numbed by drink, was thoughtful enough to take him to the court house where he was under a $100 bond for his appearance as a witness in the Circuit Court. This was only a link in the endless chain of heart aches and tears that rum has forged to drag down the human race.

A Remarkable Showing.

Notwithstanding the enterprising firm of T. J. Turley & Co. have only been in business here a few weeks, they have already sold three car loads of Buggies and Surries, six car loads of Implements, Wire, Seed, Fertilizer, etc., and have a good many sales for future delivery. Having the amount of Vehicles, Implements, etc., bought in large quantities for spot cash, T. J. Turley & Co. have five large stores, besides a large wholesale trade, which enables them to sell at the lowest possible prices, and they are people who enjoy dividing a good thing with their customers. The success they have had in coming to Hartford, shows that the farmers appreciate the low price and fair dealing of this Company.

Given Away.

Court Notes.

The Ohio Circuit Court met Monday with Judge W. T. Owen presiding and Commonwealth's Attorney J. E. Rowe and County Attorney W. H. Barnes present. All the Commonwealth cases on the 2nd day's docket were continued, except the case of the Commonwealth vs. Capt Davis &c., which is now on trial.

The following is a list of the gentlemen empaneled as petit jurors at the term of the court.

A. B. Leach, J. W. O'Bannon, R. L. Boswell, J. H. Jamison, J. C. Bennett, Robert Plummer, John H. Wilson, Harrison Austin, John Huff, John Robinson, L. B. Shaver, Clinton Igleheart, M. D. Ashby, T. W. Daniel, Thomas Greer, Thomas Sanders, W. H. Rhoads, M. T. Likens, Wm. A. Higgs, S. F. Whiteley, Horace Roberts, Sam Keown, Frank Black and Cicero Hurton.

Messrs. John H. Wilson and M. L. Heavrin, practicing attorneys, were appointed examiners to examine applicants for law license at the present term.

The grand jury made a report yesterday and returned three indictments—two against Netter Gillstrap for murder, one against Alvin Baker for malicious shooting, and one against Rethel Duke for house breaking, all of said prosecutions are set for trial on Monday the 7th day.

Com'th. of Ky vs. Geo. G. Gray &c., for robbing the Bank of Hartford, was set over until to-morrow.

Com'th vs C. D. Brown, who shot V. L. Anderson a year or so ago, the Attorney for the Commonwealth filed statement and the prosecution was stricken off.

Lady Barristers.

Misses Mary Smith and Laura Morton were admitted to the bar at this term of court. The examiners say the young ladies passed a very creditable examination. A more extensive one is next week.

Brought Back for Trial.

Sheriff Keown went over to Owensboro Wednesday and brought over Marsh, Keely, Gray and Mills, prisoners charged with cracking the Bank of Hartford safe, whose trial will be to-morrow. The prisoners greeted Sheriff Keown and his deputies very pleasantly when they went to the jail, and expressed great pleasure at returning to Hartford.

Mills and Gray were handcuffed together as were Marsh and Keely. The prisoners asked for the privilege of walking to the depot which was granted. The prisoners had each a brown work jacket for which they showed no very great fondness, and while passing some working men, on their way to the depot, they each, graciously and without comment, passed his jacket to a workman. When passing Cushman's saloon Marsh proposed a drink in which his fellow-unfortunates heartily joined, and immediately repeated. The prisoners showed the greatest respect for the officers in charge of them and appeared to be really pleased to come back to Hartford.

There were a number of people gathered at each station along the route anxious for a peep at the "bank robbers." At Fortsville kind-hearted old gentleman, with a commendable spirit of sympathy for the unfortunate shirk hands, through the window, with each of the prisoners. In a fatherly sort of way the old gentleman said to Gray, "I like you, for you never did me any harm. What is your name?" he asked of Marsh.

"My name is Jasper Jones" Marsh responded.

"Jasper," said the old gentleman warmly, "I'm glad to see you."

He then addressed Keely as the train moved away, and almost shouted, "Do you know me?"

Dan Keely's cold gray eyes sparkled as he said in an easy quiet way, "yes, yes, I know you."

The trip was without further incident and the prisoners were locked up here at 12:30 Wednesday.

An Amusing Incident.

A very amusing incident occurred in the grand jury room Monday afternoon. The proprietor of the Democratic organ here dropped into the grand jury room to interview the members of that important body, and asked the usual questions in regard to the politics, religion, etc., of its members, and when the Herald reporter was about to leave the room, Mr. W. S. Deane, a member of the jury suggested that he be classified as a Gold Democrat instead of a Democrat.

"Are you serious," queried the Herald reporter.

"Certainly," replied Mr. Deane.

"I am a Democrat, but since 1896 I have been compelled to vote the Republican ticket to get what I want."

Needless to say, the Herald man did not report the gentleman as directed.

What this Boy's Mother Says

has been said by the mothers of many other boys and girls, regarding the wonderful curative and strengthening qualities of

Dr. Miles' Nervine

"Our little boy, Harry, had spasms for 3 years and we feared the disease would affect his mind. Though we doctored continually he grew worse and had ten spasms in one week. Our attention was directed to Dr. Miles' Nervine and we began its use. When he had taken the fourth bottle the spasms disappeared and he has not had one for five years. His health now is perfect."
